Inaugurates India's longest sea bridge in Mumbai, takes swipe at previous govts

SWEETY ADIMULAM
MUMBAI, JANUARY 12

INAUGURATING THE 22-km Atal Setu, the country's longest sea bridge, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said Friday that the bridge symbolised a developed India even as he took a swipe at the previous governments at the Centre, saying they failed to deliver on their promises.

"Atal Setu is the picture of developed India. This is a glimpse of what a developed India is going to be like," the Prime Minister said during the inauguration of the Mumbai Trans Harbour Link, which has formally been named as Atal Bihari Vajpayee Sewari-Nhava Sheva Atal Setu. "In a developed India, there will be facilities for all, there will be prosperity for all, there will be

Retail inflation surges to four-month high; IIP slips to eight-month low

AANCHAL MAGAZINE
NEW DELHI, JANUARY 12

RETAIL INFLATION surged to a four-month high of 5.69 per cent in December driven by higher prices of food items such as pulses, spices, fruits and vegetables, data released by the National Statistical Office (NSO)

Friday showed. Separately released NSO data also showed that factory output, as measured by the Index of Industrial Production (IIP), slipped to an eight-month low of 2.4 per cent in November as against 11.6 per cent a month ago, and 7.6 per cent a year ago, due to a high-base effect and slower
